New 527 Group Debuts Ad Attacking Mollohan

September 5, 2006

The ad attacking Moliohan is being funded by the Economic Freedom Fund, which is based in Sacramento, Calif., at the law offices of Charles Bell, the general counsel to the California Republican Party. The group registered with the Internal Revenue Service on Aug. 1.

"News reports say federal prosecutors have opened an investigation of Alan Mollohan's finances," an announcer says in the spot. The ad also charges that Mollohan received campaign money from people who benefited from legislation he promoted.

The ad ends with these words: "To be continued."

Mollohan has denied any wrongdoing. He faces state Del. Chris Wakim (R) in November.

Meanwhile, Moliohan's campaign began running an ad attacking Wakim's controversial past association with "gray" video poker machines, which are now lilegal in the state.

"Republican Chris Wakim won't come clean about his illegal gambling machines," the ad's announcer says, while Wakim is shown in front of video poker terminals.

Wakim, a bar owner, admitted in 2001 that he paid out winnings on the 16 gray machines he operated, even though they were for amusement only and and payouts were illegal.

The state outlawed the gray machines altogether in 2002.

A spokesman for Wakim told the Charleston Daily Mail last week that Wakim's practice of paying customers what they had won was then common at establishments across the state.

Swift Boat figure attacks Mollohan

Texan housing executive running ads against Democrat

By Paul J. Nyden Steff writer

Wealthy Texas housing developer Bob J. Perry, who helped fund the Swift Bost Veterans' ads against Democratic presidential hopeful John Kerry in 2004, is funding negative television ads and paying for telephone calls and mailings attacking Rep. Alan Molichan, D-W.Vs.

Perry has given $5 million and is listed as the sole contributor to the Economic Freedom Fund, a Secremento, Calif.-based 527 group. Named after a section of federal tax law, 527s are not subject to conventional campaign finance restrictions.

in 2004, Perry gave $4.45 million to Swift Bost Veterans and POWs for Truth to run television ads attacking Kerry. Perry gave another $3 million to Progress for America Voter Fund, another 527 group created in 2004 that raised $36 million for President Bush's re-election campaign.

The Economic Freedom Fund was created on Aug. 1. Perry, who owns Perry Homes based in Houston, is the group's only contributor, at least so far. Perry made payments of $2 million on Aug. 18 and $3 million on Sept. 5.

In its Sept. 8 filing with Federal Elections Commission, the fund revealed it is focusing its efforts on two congressmen — Motiohan and Rep. Jim Mershall, D-Ga. The Economic Freedom Fund had already spent eligibly more than $500,000 buying television ade, according to the FEC filing.

Perry has close ties to Karl Rove, Bush's top adviser, and former House Majority Leader Tom DeLsy, R-Texas.

The Economic Freedom Fund recently hired Stevens Reed Curcle & Potholm, an Arlington, Va., media firm, to prepare ade against Molichen and Mershall. That firm also prepared the Swift Boat ads attacking Kerry's military service in Vietnam, where he won a Silver Star, a Bronze Star and three Purple Hearts.

Gerry Griffith, who runs Moliohan's campaign, said Thursday, "It is a tramendous investment in two congressional races, coming from Texas, the home of Tom DeLay, Karl Rove and other folks who specialize in wedge politics and negative campaigning.

"West Virginia should be alarmed at this attempt to buy their representatives wholesale," Griffith said. "This is the thinking people should really be frightened about."

Federal election laws allow congressional candidates to accept $4,200 from any individual during a campaign. But in federal campaigne, 527 groups have no contribution limits.

Congressional candidates and their staffs are prohibited from communicating with anyone working for a 527 group.

Will Holley, spokesmen for Moliohan's opponent, Delegate Chris Waldm, R-Ohlo, said, "We follow the federal laws and we have had no contact whatsoever with the group.

"But we think the voters have the right to know that Moliohen has used his power on the Appropriations Committee to send earmerks to nonprofits he set up that are run by former staffers and business partners."

The negative compaign against Molichen began in April, when the National Legal and Policy Center, a conservative political group, accused him of hundreds of errors in finance reports he filed as a congressmen.

In June, Molichen released detailed financial reports that he said proved the NLPC "wildly exaggerated the inadvertent errors on my past financial disclosure statements."

"They also show that NLPC is dead wrong in implying that I have improperly benefited from my office."

The NLPC sent its 500-page report to the U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia and leaked excerpts to some newspapers.

But the group consistently refuses to release its full report to The Charleston Gezette and other newspapers.

Doug Moore, Marshell's press secretary who is now running his re-election campaign, said, "These (Economic Freedom Fund) ads are absolutely intellecting."

Television advertisements in Georgia portray Marshall, whose district includes Macon, as being tied to Sen. Ted Kennedy, D-Mass., Sen. Hillery Clinton, D-N.Y., and Rep. Cynthia McKinney, D-Ge., who lost her seat in this year's primary after a highly publicized altercation with a Capitol Hill policemen.

"Jim [Marshalf] is not a liberal. He is a conservative. And this is a guy who dropped out of Princeton to go to Vietnam, where he received two Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart," Moore said.

Moore said people running the Economic Freedom Fund "don't call back. This is a shadow group. They are not talking to reporters.

"Whenever you have a group operating on the fringes like this, voters have the right to know who is making these attacks. The attacks are not true. Fact checking is not their stronggoint." Moore said.

Charles H. Bell Jr., a Sacramento lawyer who is general counsel to the California Republican Party, signed the Economic Freedom Fund's FEC report and has been listed as the contact person on the group's Web site.

Bell refused to return several telephone calls this week. A receptionist at his office said, "We have no information to give out. He won't call you back. This is not the Freedom Fund's office.

"Any time I tell him someone has called, he has told me to give out another number. You are not the only one who is calling us about this," she said. No one responded to several calls placed to that number.

Patrick Dorenson, communications director for the California Republican Party, said Thursday, "This is the first I have ever heard of that group. I have no idea what it is or what Chuck's involvement in the group is."

Between 1992 and 2005, Perry gave $15,000 in contributions to DeLay, who currently faces felony counts for money-laundering and conspiracy stemming from his fundraleing efforts for Republicans in 2002.

Perry also makes donations to state election races. In 2002, he donated more than $3.6 million to candidates in Texas state elections, according to the Web site www.cleanuplexaspolitics.com.

Today, the Economic Freedom Fund is also sending mailings supporting two Republican gubernatorial candidates: Gov. Sonny Perdue, who is running for re-election in Georgia, and incumbent Rep. Jim Nussie, who is running for governor of lows.

Former Swift Boat attack-ad backer takes on House Democrats The Associated Press State & Local Wire September 14, 2006 Thursday

According to its Sept. 8 disclosure, the Economic Freedom Fund has spent $337,753 on the West Virginia race, where Hollohan, a 12-term Democrat, faces Republican state delegate Chris Wakim. The group has spent $163,599 in Georgia, where two-term incumbent Marshall is being challenged by former Republican congressman Mac Collins.

The fund's West Virginia ads address recent allegations regarding Mollohan's ethics, citing news reports that he is the subject of a federal investigation into whether he steered government money to nonprofit groups that donated to his campaigns.

Wakim's spokesman Will Holley said the group is helping to inform voters about Mollohan.

"The voters have a right to know Alan Mollohan's dismal voting record on issues like child safety, " said Holley, who noted that Wakim's campaign has had no contact with the Economic Freedom Fund, which would be illegal.

One of the direct mailings paid for by the group accuses Mollohan of voting "against additional protection for children from sexual predators," which Hollohan's campaign denies.

Mollohan campaign spokesman Gerry Griffith said he thinks the advertising is turning people off.

"The influx of negative campaigning from Sacramento is unprecedented, certainly in my 25 years of West Virginia politics," Griffith said.

The Georgia ads portray Marshall, a conservative Democrat from Macon, as a liberal, associating him with the policies of Democratic Sens. Hillary Clinton of New York and Ted Kennedy of Massachusetts, as well as Georgia Democratic Rep. Cynthia McKinney, who lost her seat in a Democratic primary this year after a highly-publicised scuffle with a Capitol Hill police officer.

Marshall spokesman Doug Moore said voters in the district are familiar enough with Marshall's record to know the ads are off base.

"Getting out there and calling Jim Marshall a liberal in the Macon media market isn't going to be effective, " Moore said. "Everybody here knows Jim, and they know he's conservative."

Unlike with Kerry and the Swift Boat group, the Sconomic Freedom Fund has not questioned Marshall's Vietnam War service. A former Army Ranger platoon sergeant and recent inductee into the Army Ranger Hall of Fame, Marshall was awarded two Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart for his service in Vietnam.

"Jim Marshall has a great military record, and I hope they bring that up because we would love to make that an issue in this campaign," Moore said.

The group also made automated phone calls supporting Republican Rep. Mike Sodrel and criticizing his Indiana rival, but the effort may have done more harm than good. A spokeswoman for the Indiana Attorney General's office said Thursday it will investigate a complaint that the calls violate the state's law against automated phone calls.

According to its filing, the Economic Freedom Fund was formed to "promote policies and issues favoring economic freedom, growth and prosperity of the economy."

The group's "527" status refers to a section of the tax law. Such groups can accept unlimited donations for voter mobilization and issue advertisements aimed at influencing federal elections.

Former Swift Boat attack-ad backer takes on House Democrats

BYLINE: By BEN EVANS, Associated Press Writer

SECTION: POLITICAL NEWS

LENGTH: 949 words

DATELINE: WASHINGTON

The Texas homebuilder who helped bankroll the attack on Democratic presidential candidate John Kerry's war record in 2004 is setting his sights on Democrats seeking re-election to Congress, including W.Va. Rep. Alan Mollohan.

Bob J. Perry, a major Republican donor with close ties to White House adviser Karl Rove and former House Majority Leader Tom DeLay, has donated $5 million since Aug. 18 to a newly formed California group called the Economic Freedom Fund. Like the anti-Kerry Swift Boat Veterans for Truth, the fund is a so-called 527 group that is not subject to conventional campaign finance restrictions and can spend unlimited amounts on election advocacy.

So far, the new group which was formed last month and lists Perry as its sole donor has spent slightly more than $500,000 on television ads and mailers criticizing Mollohan and Democratic House Rep. Jim Marshall of Georgia, according to a disclosure form filed last week with the Federal Election Commission.

According to its Web site, the group also is distributing mailers supporting Republican Georgia Gov. Sonny Perdue's re-election campaign and Jim Mussle of Iowa, a Republican congressman running for governor.

Anthony Holm, a spokesman for Perry, declined to comment on the contribution or on further plans for using the group's money. Charles H. Bell Jr., a Sacramento attorney listed as the fund's contact, did not return phone calls Wednesday or Thursday. On its FEC filings, the group lists as its address the same Sacramento office as Bell's law firm, Bell, McAndrews & Kiltachk.

The West Virginia and Georgia congressional races that the group is targeting are considered among the GOP's best shots at picking up seats in an election year where some experts believe the party is in danger of losing its majority in Congress.

The amount of money involved is significant.

Perry's $5 million donation, made in two payments on Aug. 18 and Sept. 5, is among the largest, if not the largest, donation from an individual to any 527 group this year, although contribution records are still being filed. It exceeds the nearly $4.5 million that Perry gave the Swift Boat Veterans for Truth in 2004, when he provided the seed money to help launch the group and was its biggest donor. And it's more than double the amount that billionaire Democratic donor George Soros has given to 527 groups this year, according to the Web site Political MoneyLine, which tracks campaign finances.

Soros has given about $2.3 million this year to several outside groups.

Swift Boat ad bankroller targets 2 Ga. Democrats

By Bob Dart Cox Washington Bureau Published on: 09/23/06

Washington — The Texas millionaire who paid for the Swift Boat ads against Democratic presidential candidate John Kerry in 2004 is now taking aim at a pair of Democratic congressmen from Georgia.

Bob J. Perry gave $5 million to the Economic Freedom Fund, which is headquartered in California and has paid for TV ads, fliers and telephone messages criticizing Jim Marshall and John Barrow, whose re-election bids are among the hottest races in the country this fall.

Perry, a home builder who lives near Houston and has long ties with White House adviser Karl Rove, gave $4.45 million to Swift Boat Veterans for Truth during the 2004 election cycle, according to the Center for Responsive Politics, a nonpartisan group that tracks campaign financing. The Swift Boat group paid for ads that questioned the Vietnam wartime heroism of Kerry, the Democratic presidential candidate.

Both the Economic Freedom Fund and Swift Boat Veterans for Truth are 527 political groups, named for the tax provision under which they operate. Their donors are not subject to donation limits because the groups are supposedly independent from the political parties and candidates.

Campaign spending reports have yet to be filed, but Perry's donation to the Economic Freedom Fund probably makes him the largest donor so far to such groups in the 2006 election cycle, said Massie Ritsch, a spokesman for the Center for Responsive Politics.

Perry has drawn some comparisons with George Soros — the multimillionaire Democratic donor who funded MoveOn.org and other left-leaning 527 groups during the last election cycle — though Perry gave only about a third of Soros' $23.4 million in the 2004 election cycle. But this time out, Perry is well ahead of Soros, who has given $1.9 million to 527 groups, according to the reports filed so far.

Campaign finance filings show Perry as the only donor to the Economic Freedom Fund, which was formed last month to "educate the public concerning issues related to the preservation of economic freedom, the promotion of economic growth and prosperity for the people of the United States of America."

Phone calls to the fund's headquarters in Sacramento were not returned. The group's TV spots in the Georgia races were created by Stevens Reed Curcio & Potholm, an Alexandria, Va., political consulting firm that also created the Swift Boat spots.

In one spot, Marshall is accused of talking like a conservative in Georgia and voting as a liberal in Washington. In another, his votes are compared to those of Sens. Ted Kennedy and Hillary Clinton and Rep. Cynthia McKinney, and his vote for Nancy Pelosi to be speaker of the House is highlighted.

In the TV spot in his race, Barrow is depicted as voting to benefit trial lawyers and against small businesses.

Doug Moore, a spokesman for the Marshall campaign, called the ads "Bob Perry's attempt to go around the campaign finance laws."

"I'd like to get Bob Perry in a room with the truth and introduce them," Moore said.

He said the ads could have an effect on the campaign, "but I don't know that they will."

"They're pretty much over the top," he said, citing an accusation of wasteful spending for Marshall's vote on a continuing resolution that kept the government running and was also supported by the Republican House leadership.

Barrow's campaign also labeled the ads dishonest.

"This shady, third-party group is polluting Georgia's airwaves with false, negative TV ads, clogging up phone lines with annoying and deliberately deceitful 'push polls,' and filling 12th District mailboxes with dishonest, negative mailers," the campaign said in a written response.

The Economic Freedom Fund ad came "from an independent group. There was no coordination whatsoever" with the Burns campaign, said Tim Baker, campaign manager for Barrow's opponent, Republican Max Burns. He said he saw the ad for the first time when his wife called him to a TV set to point it out.

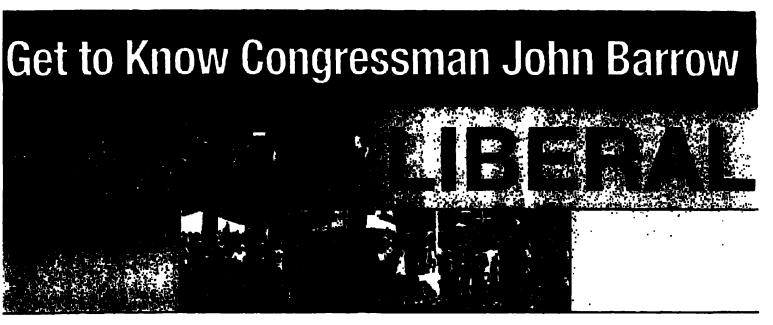

"That's nothing we would have any control over," said Ted Prill, campaign manager for Mac Collins, Marshall's Republican opponent. He said the candidate had no connection with third-party ads.

The Economic Freedom Fund is also advertising in congressional campaigns in Indiana, where Democrat Baron Hill is trying to regain the seat he lost in 2004 to Republican Mike Sodrel, and in West Virginia, where Republican Chris Wakim is trying to unseat incumbent Democratic Rep. Alan Mollohan. In Iowa, the group has run TV spots in the congressional race in which Democratic Rep. Leonard Boswell is defending his seat against Republican challenger Jeff Lamberti.

The fund's Web site also shows pamphlets it has prepared saying Republican Gov. Sonny Perdue, who is seeking re-election, is "getting the job done for Georgis."

Indiana sues California group over automated calls

SECTION: STATE AND REGIONAL

LENGTH: 552 words

DATELINE: INDIANAPOLIS

The state sued a California-based group Monday to stop it from making automated phone calls attacking Democratic candidate Baron Hill in the 9th District congressional race.

The group behind the calls, the Sacramento-based Economic Freedom Fund, is being funded by the Republican donor who helped bankroll the Swift Boat attack ads on Democratic Sen. John Kerry's war record during the 2004 presidential campaign.

The attorney general's office filed a lawsuit in Brown Circuit Court in Nashville seeking temporary and permanent injunctions against the calls as violations of Indiana's telemarketing law and fines of $5,000 for each violation. A hearing in the case is set Sept. 27.

Attorney General Steve Carter received 12 consumer complaints over the calls, including one from Philip Wilkinson, 41, of Bloomington, who said he was on the state's do-not-call list and is offended by negative political ads.

"When somebody gets real ugly, I'll say, 'Heck, I'll vote for the other guy,'" Wilkinson said, adding he does not support Hill or Sodrel.

Carter said representatives of the Economic Freedom Fund agreed to stop the calls when his office contacted them Friday. He said he was unaware of any more being placed since then.

"They implicitly acknowledged they were making the calls," Carter, a Republican, said during a news conference to announce the lawsuit.

The Associated Press left messages with the fund and its attorney Monday seeking comment on the lawsuit.

Bob J. Perry, a Texas homebuilder with close ties to White House adviser Karl Rove and former House Majority Leader Tom DeLay, recently donated $5 million to the fund, a newly created California group targeting Democratic candidates.

Carter played a recording of one of the automated calls in which the unidentified speaker attacks Hill for votes while the Democrat still represented southern Indiana's 9th District. Republican Nike Sodrel unseated Hill in 2004, and the two are Wying for the seat again this year.

Hill's campaign thanked Carter for "setting aside partisan alliances and doing what's right for all Hoosiers."

Sodrel's campaign also supported Hill's lawsuit. For 14 months the campaign has battled liberal special interest groups using the same tactics, but targeting Sodrel.

"It's the worst kind of politics, and they've got to stop," Sodrel spokesman Cam Savage said of the automated calls.

Indiana sues California group over automated calls The Associated Press State & Local Wire September 18, 2006 Monday

The Economic Freedom Fund's political status is 527, which exempts it from conventional campaign finance restrictions and allows it to spend unlimited amounts on election advocacy, similar to the Swift Boat Veterans for Truth. In the 2004 presidential race, the group of Vietnam veterans made unsubstantiated allegations challenging Kerry's record of wartime heroism.

According to its filing, the Economic Freedom Fund was formed to "promote policies and issues favoring economic freedom, growth and prosperity of the economy."

Carter sent an Aug. 22 letter to state Democratic and Republican parties informing them that a 1988 state law prohibited automated phone calls for political purposes and promising to enforce it, even though the law had been widely ignored during past political campaigns.

FREEEATS.COM, INC.,		LAUN CLERK HOOS
Plaintiff,
v.	Civil Action No
STATE OF INDIANA EX REL. STEVE CARTER, ATTORNEY GENERAL, and, STEVE CARTER, Attorney General,	1:06-cv-1403	3 -LJM -WTL
Defendants.	'

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

FreeEats.com, Inc. ("plaintiff"), by counsel, alleges:

1. Among other things, plaintiff files this action to have this Court enter an order, declaring void and unenforceable Indiana Code § 24-5-14-5 (the "Automatic Dialing Machine" or "ADM" statute), which restricts the making of prerecorded telephone calls to residents of Indiana, on the ground that it is preempted by the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Pub. L. No. 102-243, 105 Stat. 2394 (1991), and the implementing rule adopted by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC"), 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(2)(ii)(2005), as the ADM statute is applied to prerecorded interstate telephone calls that seek to either survey the recipient's political views or deliver a political message.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 2. This action arises under the Constitution of the United States, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202 and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.
- Venue for this action is proper in the United States District Court for the Southern 3. District of Indiana. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

PARTIES |

- 4. Plaintiff is a Virginia corporation with its principal place of business in Herndon. Virginia. Plaintiff is a survey and database company that relies upon interactive voice response, speech recognition technology on outbound calls using prerecorded messages to query households through survey polls; identify supporters and later encourage those supporters to turn out to vote; and to deliver political advocacy messages. The company has been active in many political campaigns and initiatives, on behalf of candidates or of groups that support candidates, including the making of interstate calls into Indiana in support of congressional candidates in that state for the election year 2006.
- 5. Defendant STATE of INDIANA has enacted a law that purports to prohibit calls into the state containing pre-recorded telephone calls, potentially calls such as those made by plaintiff.
- Defendant STEVE CARTER is the Attorney General of the State of Indiana. 6. Under the Indiana Constitution, the Attorney General is the chief law enforcement officer of the State and has the duty to enforce its laws, including the Automatic Dialing Machine statute, Indiana Code Section 24-5-14-5. The Attorney General is sued in his official capacity.

NATURE OF THE ACTION AND BACKGROUND

- 7. This case concerns the Indiana' Automatic Dialing Machine statute that, as interpreted and enforced by defendants, makes it illegal for plaintiff to make prerecorded, interstate telephone calls to citizens of the State of Indiana, to communicate a political message.
 - 8. The Automatic Dialing Machine statute provides, in part;
 - Sec 5. (b) A caller may not use or connect to a telephone line an automatic dialing-announcing device unless:
 - (1) The subscriber has knowingly or voluntarily requested, consented to, permitted, or authorized receipt of the message; or
 - (2) The message is immediately preceded by a live operator who obtains the subscriber's consent before the message is delivered.
- 9. There is no exclusion in the statute for interstate calls that are entirely political in nature.
- 10. An actual controversy exists. Defendants have made statements to the media warning political parties against automated political phone calls to Indiana voters during the upcoming election campaigns, and have in fact filed an action in Indiana state court, seeking to enforce the statute against the Economic Freedom Fund related to calls made by plaintiff on the Economic Freedom Funds' behalf for interstate calls that are entirely political in nature.
- 11. The ADM statute conflicts with a rule issued by the FCC pursuant to authority delegated by Congress in the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 (the "TCPA").
- 12. Plaintiff seeks a declaration that the Automatic Dialing Machine statute, insofar as it applies to prerecorded interstate calls for political purposes, is preempted by the TCPA and violates the Commerce Clause and the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, and an injunction permanently barring enforcement of the law to such calls.

The ADM statute is preempted because it regulates interstate telephone calls. 13. Under the Constitution and the TCPA, states lack jurisdiction to regulate such interstate communications. Congress enacted TCPA to provide specific federal regulation of certain interstate telephone calls precisely because the States cannot regulate interstate telephone calls.

THE FEDERAL REGULATORY REGIME

- 14. Federal Communications Act of 1934. The FCA grants the FCC exclusive jurisdiction to regulate interstate telephone calls. 47 U.S.C. § 152(a). Subject to certain exceptions, the FCA generally commits to the States exclusive jurisdiction to regulate intrastate communications. Id. § 152(b). The FCA denies States any jurisdiction to regulate interstate telephone calls.
- The Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA"). The TCPA made it 15. "unlawful for any person within the United States . . . (B) to initiate any telephone call to any residential telephone line using an artificial or prerecorded voice to deliver a message without the prior express consent of the called party, unless the call is initiated for emergency purposes or is exempted by rule or order by the Commission under paragraph (2)(B)." 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B). The phrase "any telephone call" establishes federal jurisdiction over defined categories of both intrastate and interstate telemarketing calls.
- The TCPA further delegates to the FCC the power to create an exception to this 16. prohibition for telephone calls "that are not made for a commercial purpose." 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(2)(B). In 1992, the FCC exercised the authority granted by Congress in Section

Filed 09/21/2006

227(b)(2)(B) and adopted a rule that exempted all prerecorded calls made for a noncommercial purpose from the prohibition that otherwise would apply. 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(2)(ii).

17. The TCPA regulates interstate and intrastate calls. The statute includes a saving clause that provides that the TCPA does not preempt State regulation of intrastate telemarketing calls that are more restrictive than the federal minimum standards.

> STATE LAW NOT PREEMPTED.—Except for [certain specified provisions of the TCPA], nothing in this section or in the regulations prescribed under this section shall preempt any State law that imposes more restrictive intrastate requirements or regulations on, or which prohibits— (C) the use of artificial or prerecorded voice messages 47 U.S.C. § 227(e)(1). Plaintiff seeks a declaration that this saving clause does not permit States to regulate interstate telemarketing calls that the FCC permits; i.e., calls of a political (noncommercial) nature.

THE INDIANA STATUTE

- 18. The ADM statute provides:
 - 24-5-14-5. Conditions for using automatic dialing-announcing device - Exceptions.
 - (a) This section does not apply to messages:
 - (1) From school districts to students, parents, or employees:
 - (2) To subscribers with whom the caller has a current business or personal relationship: or
 - (3) Advising employees of work schedules.
 - (b) A caller may not use or connect to a telephone line an automatic dialing-announcing device unless:
 - (1) The subscriber has knowingly or voluntarily requested, consented to, permitted, or authorized receipt of the message: of
 - (2) The message is immediately preceded by a live operator who obtains the subscriber's consent before the message is delivered.

19. The ADM statute provides for injunctive relief against those who violate the statute, as well as civil penalties.

INJURY TO PLAINTIFF

20. Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable injury if it is prohibited by the ADM statute from using automatic dialing-announcing devices to place "unsolicited" interstate telephone calls to Indiana residents for political purposes. As applied to interstate telephone calls, the ADM statute would deprive plaintiff of its constitutional rights, and would violate its right to free speech, which is protected by the United States Constitution. These losses cannot be quantified. Even if these losses could be quantified, the Eleventh Amendment would bar Plaintiff, should it prevail, from seeking monetary recovery from the defendants.

COUNT I

(Preemption)

- 21. Plaintiff repeats, re-alleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 - 20, as though fully set forth herein.
- 22. The Supremacy Clause provides, in pertinent part: "This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance of thereof . . . shall be the Supreme Law of the Land." U.S. Const., art. VI, cl. 2.
- The Federal Communications Act of 1934 ("FCA") denies the States jurisdiction 23. to regulate interstate communications.
- The FCC has promulgated a rule, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(ii), pursuant to authority 24. delegated by Congress in the TCPA, which exempted interstate prerecorded noncommercial telephone calls from the prohibition of telemarketing calls otherwise established by the TCPA.

- 25. The ADM statute purports to regulate both prerecorded intrastate and interstate telephone calls, and without regard to whether the call seeks to elicit political views or communicate a political message.
- 26. The ADM statue is preempted by the FCA and the FCC implementing rule insofar as it purports to regulate prerecorded interstate telephone calls made to communicate a political message.
- 27. Enforcement of the ADM statute with respect to prerecorded interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes will cause Plaintiff immediate and irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT II

(Undue Burden on Interstate Commerce)

- 28. Plaintiff repeats, re-alleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-27, as though fully set forth herein.
- Under the dormant Commerce Clause, a state may not impose undue burdens on 29. interstate commerce.
- 30. Insofar as it regulates interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute imposes an undue burden because it produces no local benefit.
- 31. Insofar as it regulates interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political nurposes, the ADM statute imposes an undue burden because the burden exceeds any local benefit and is not adequately tailored to its goal.
- 32. Therefore, insofar as it regulates interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute violates the dormant Commerce Clause.

Enforcement of the ADM statute with respect to interstate telephone calls to 33. residents of Indiana for political purposes will cause Plaintiff immediate and irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT III

(Indiana Constitution)

- 34. Plaintiff repeats, re-alleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-33 as though fully set forth herein.
- 35. By enforcing the ADM statute with respect to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purpose, Defendants will unlawfully and substantially deprive Plaintiff, and the organizations on whose behalf it makes calls, of free speech rights secured by the Free Speech Clause of the Indiana Constitution, Article 1, Section 9. Statistical analysis shows that Plaintiff's interactive voice response system is one of the most effective means of communicating political messages and, if Defendants are successful in banning the use of that system, then Plaintiffs, Plaintiff's clients, and the citizens of Indiana will all suffer from an infringement of their free speech rights.
 - 36. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT IY

(First Amendment)

- 37. Plaintiff repeats, re-alleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-36 as though fully set forth herein.
- By enforcing the ADM statute with respect to interstate telephone calls to 38. residents of Indiana for political purpose, Defendants will unlawfully and substantially deprive Plaintiff, and the organizations on whose behalf it makes calls, of free speech rights secured by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. Statistical analysis shows that Plaintiff's interactive voice response system is one of the most effective means of communicating political messages and, if Defendants are successful in banning the use of that system, then Plaintiffs, Plaintiff's clients, and the citizens of Indiana will all suffer from an infringement of their free speech rights.

39. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT Y

(42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- 40. Plaintiff repeats, re-alleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-39 as though fully set forth herein.
- 41. By enforcing the ADM statute with respect to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purpose, Defendants will unlawfully and substantially deprive Plaintiff of rights secured by the Supremacy Clause and the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.
- 42. Defendants are "persons" under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 who have acted under color of state law to deprive Plaintiff of rights secured by the United States Constitution.
 - 43. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court:

- 1. enter a judgment declaring that, insofar as it applies to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute is preempted by the Federal Communications Act of 1934, and is null and void;
- enter a judgment declaring that, insofar as it applies to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute violates the dormant Commerce Clause, and is null and void;
- 3. enter a judgment declaring that, insofar as it applies to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute violates the First Amendment and the Indiana Free Speech Clause, and is null and void:
- 4. enter a judgment declaring that, insofar as it applies to interstate telephone calls to residents of Indiana for political purposes, the ADM statute violates 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and is null and void;
- 5. enter a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants and their agents from taking any action under or to enforce or implement the ADM statute with respect to interstate communications; and
- 6. award plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and grant plaintiff such additional or different relief as it deems just and proper.

Majority Action Launches Television Ads to Educate Public About Disastrous Record of House Republicans

By NGP Admin Created 2006-09-07 09:01

Independent Political Group shines spotlight on records of Rep. James Walsh and Rep. Deborah Pryce; First to Use Text Messaging as Political Communication in Ad

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today launched two television ads, one criticizing Rep. James Walsh (NY-25) for his open-ended support for President Bush's war in Iraq, and one criticizing Deborah Pryce (OH-15) for her record on congressional travel and votes to weaken ethics rules in the House. These ads are the first in a national series of ads that will spotlight the disastrous record of House Republicans.

Majority Action is an independent organization focused on exposing the record of the current Republican Congress and on promoting a progressive Democratic agenda in the U.S. House of Representatives.

"Republicans in Congress have failed this country," said Majority Action executive director Mark Longabaugh. "They have failed us by supporting Bush's open-ended policy in Iraq, they have failed to clean up a scandal plagued House leadership, and they have failed to accomplishs anything of significance in this Congress to move our economy forward. James Walsh and Deborah Pryce reflect this failure and that is why we have spotlighted their records."

"These are only two examples of a Republican Congress that is out of touch with the values and the interests of the American family," added Majority Action leadership circle member Joe Andrew. "We plan to continue to aggressively shine a spotlight on the failed record of Congressional members.

One ad focuses on Congresswoman Pryce's special interest funded travel and votes to end the investigation into Jack Abramoff. The Ad "Trips" will run in the Columbus media market in Ohio for one week. The second ad focuses on Congressman Walsh's continued support of President Bush's failed "stay the course" Iraq policy. "Iraq" will run in the Syracuse media market in New York for two weeks.

Majority Action intends to shine the spotlight on Republican members of Congress using traditional communications efforts, like television advertising, and new, emerging technologies, like text messaging. In these ads, the first to use text messaging, people can text the word "IRAQ" to 35328 for more information on their mobile phones in the Walsh ad and text the word "TRIPS" to the short code 35328 on their mobile phones in the Pryce ad.

Both ads can be viewed on MajorityAction.net and on YouTube.com [1].

Majority Action is led by veteran Democratic campaign operatives and has a leadership board that consists of prominent political figures, including several former Members of Congress, two former Democratic National Committee Chairmen and two former DCCC Chairmen.

Democrats Form New 527 to Win Back House

June 5, 2006 By Josh Kurtz, Roll Call Staff

With the Republican National Committee poised to dump tens of millions of dollars into key House races this year, Democratic operatives and party leaders on Friday launched a new 527 fundraising committee to help the party win control of the House in November.

The leaders of the new 527 group, called Majority Action, are working in tandem with a two-month-old Senate-oriented 527, Fresh Start America. The groups' founders are scheduled to meet with potential donors on the West Coast later this month and will also travel to New York for a fundralser hosted by Leo Hindery, a media mogul and major Democratic financial angel.

Mark Longabaugh, the executive director of Majority Action, said the new 527 aiready has received financial commitments from Democratic-oriented interest groups such as the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. The group's launch comes amid House Democratic worries that the Democratic National Committee will not be able to do enough financially this cycle to augment the work of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee.

The new group intends to target "eight to 12 to 15" vulnerable House Republicans this fall, primarily through TV and radio ads, Longabaugh said.

Like Fresh Start America, which was founded by top Democratic strategists Mike Gehrke, Jim Jordan and Nick Baidick, Majority Action will be run by a seasoned team of Democratic operatives and boasts several big-name party leaders as advisers.

Longabaugh was the political director for the League of Conservation Voters in the 2004 political cycle and is currently filling a similar role, as a consultant, for the group Defenders of Wildlife. A veteran of several presidential and Congressional campaigns, he unsuccessfully challenged Rep. Steve Chabot (R-Ohio) in 1996.

The Majority Action staff also includes Donnie Fowler, son of former DNC Chairman Don Fowler and an innovator in party efforts to use technology to make electoral gains, and Amanda Crumley, who has worked on three presidential campaigns and served as communications director to Iowa Gov. Tom Vilsack (D), a possible 2008 presidential candidate.

Fowler and Crumley are partners in a California-based consulting firm.

The group's leadership board includes two former DCCC chairmen, former Reps. Tony Coelho (D-Calif.) and Martin Frost (D-Texas); ex-Reps. Buddy Darden (D-Ga.), Tom Downey (D-N.Y.), Cleo Fields (D-La.), Liz Patterson (D-S.C.) and Lynn Schenk (D-Calif.); the elder Fowler and fellow former DNC Chairman Joe Andrew; and Harold Ickes, the consigliere to Sen. Hillary Rodham Clinton (D-N.Y.).

washingtonpost.com New Group Is Racing To Slow Down GOP

By Chris Cillizza
Thursday, September 7, 2006; A10

A new independent political organization made up of former Democratic members of Congress and high-level party operatives has begun running television ads targeting two Republican incumbents.

The group, Majority Action, is sponsoring commercials that hit Reps. Deborah Pryce (Ohio) and James T. Walsh (N.Y.) on corruption and the war in Iraq, respectively.

"The course set by President Bush and Congress isn't working," says a narrator in one of the ads. "But Congressman Walsh wants to give us more of the same."

The goal of Majority Action, according to co-chairman Joe Andrew, is to level the financial playing field in Republican-held seats where a potential national wave could wipe out a number of incumbents not considered top targets at the moment.

"Poll after poll [show] that the only thing standing between Democrats being able to win the House back is Republicans being better able to execute their campaigns," Andrew said.

Andrew and Don Fowler -- both former Democratic National Committee chairmen -- anchor the group's leadership circle, which includes a panoply of former lawmakers, including past Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee chairmen Tony Coelho (Calif.) and Martin Frost (Tex.).

While he shied away from specifics, Andrew said Majority Action had a "seven-figure" budget -- between $8 million and $10 million, an informed source said -- and was spending in the "six figures" in individual House districts.

The group is registered as a 527 (so named for its place in the tax code) with the Internal Revenue Service and had raised $210,000 as of June 30. Ads in two additional districts are expected to launch shortly.

Majority Action's founders have insisted the organization will succeed where other outside groups -- which can accept contributions of unlimited size -- targeting House and Senate races have failed because of the high-profile figures aligned with the effort and the amount of attention being paid to the fight for control of this cycle.

Presidential Run for Armey?

Other former shakers on Capitol Hill likewise seem to be in the mood, if not to resume shaking, to at least jiggle a little.

Witness former House majority leader Richard K. Armey (R-Tex.) who retired from the House in 2002 and has spent his time since heading up Freedom Works -- a group that advocates shrinking government and lowering taxes.

Armey is now headed to Iowa for a speech on Sept. 19, stoking speculation that he may fancy himself a candidate for president in 2008. Although Armey told ABC News that he has "no interest in Dick Armey for president," he left the door open — wide open.

Aides were quick to point out that the former leader is likely to visit the presidential proving grounds of New Hampshire and South Carolina later this year. An aide said Armey hopes to "keep the Reagan legacy alive in the presidential primary."

An Armey bid would have any number of hurdles, most importantly the weight of history. The previous former House member to be elected president was George H.W. Bush.

New Radio Ad Focuses on Congressman James Walsh Pro-Congressional Pay Raise, Anti-Minimum Wage Increase Votes

By NGP Admin Created 2006-09-20 18:00

Walsh Blatantly Misrepresents His Record on Radio Call-in Show

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today launched a new radio ad [0] criticizing Congressman James Walsh (NY-25) for his record of supporting $23,000 in Congressional pay raises while voting multiple times against increasing the minimum wage and making false claims during a radio call-in show.

During a call-in show on WXXI Walsh claimed that he "never" voted against increasing the minimum wage despite the fact that he did vote eight times against increasing the minimum wage. He also claimed that his pay raise was "automatic" when the Congressional Record is clear: he voted six times to raise his pay - a total of $23,000.

"Congressman Walsh should explain why he voted for pay increases for himself of $23,000 while voting against pay raises for working families," said Mark Longabaugh, Executive Director of Majority Action. "Majority Action intends to ensure that his constituents are well aware of Congressman Walsh's record: voting for a Congressional pay raise and against an increase of the minimum wage."

The radio ad is the third to focus on Walsh's pro-pay raise, anti-minimum wage increase voting record. The audio is available on MajorityAction.net as are the television and Internet ads. (Listen to the ad now [0] - mp3 format)

Majority Action is an independent organization focused on exposing the record of the current Republican Congress and on promoting a progressive Democratic agenda in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Majority Action is led by veteran Democratic activists and has a leadership board that consists of prominent political figures, including several former Members of Congress, two former Democratic National Committee Chairmen and two former DCCC Chairmen.

Majority Action Launches Two New Television Ads to Educate Public about House Republican's Disastrous Record

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today launched two new television ads, one criticizing Congressman Dave Reichert (WA-8) for his open-ended support for President Bush's war in Iraq and failure to implement recommendations of the 9-11 Commission, and one criticizing Congressman James Walsh (NY-25) for taking campaign contributions from big oil and voting to give them tax breaks as well as his vote to raise his own pay while voting repeatedly against raising the minimum wage.

This is the second ad to run criticizing Walsh's record.

"Congressman Walsh is clearly not proud of his record and wants to keep it out of the spotlight," said Executive Director Mark Longabaugh. "Majority Action intends ensure that his constituents are well aware of Congressman Walsh's record: supporting Bush's failed strategy in Iraq, voting for tax breaks for big oil and voting for a Congressional pay raise and against an increase of the minimum wage."

"Republicans in Congress have failed this country," continued Longabaugh. "They have failed us by supporting Bush's open-ended policy in Iraq, they have failed us by not implementing the recommendations of the 9-11 Commission, they have failed us by giving big oil tax breaks and they have failed us by voting to raise Congressional pay and not the minimum wage. James Walsh and Dave Reichert reflect this failure and that is why we have spotlighted their records."

"These are only two examples of a Republican Congress that is out of touch with the values and the interests of the American family," added Majority Action leadership circle member Joe Andrew. "We plan to continue to aggressively shine a spotlight on the failed record of Congressional members.

Both ads can be viewed on MajorityAction.net and on YouTube.com.

Majority Action Launches Television Ads to Educate Public About Disastrous Record of House Republicans

By NGP Admin Created 2006-09-07 09:01

Independent Political Group shines spotlight on records of Rep. James Walsh and Rep. Deborah Pryce; First to Use Text Messaging as Political Communication in Ad

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today launched two television ads, one criticizing Rep. James Walsh (NY-25) for his open-ended support for President Bush's war in Iraq, and one criticizing Deborah Pryce (OH-15) for her record on congressional travel and votes to weaken ethics rules in the House. These ads are the first in a national series of ads that will spotlight the disastrous record of House Republicans.

Majority Action is an independent organization focused on exposing the record of the current Republican Congress and on promoting a progressive Democratic agenda in the U.S. House of Representatives.

"Republicans in Congress have failed this country," said Majority Action executive director Mark Longabaugh. "They have failed us by supporting Bush's open-ended policy in Iraq, they have failed to clean up a scandal plagued House leadership, and they have failed to accomplishs anything of significance in this Congress to move our economy forward. James Walsh and Deborah Pryce reflect this failure and that is why we have spotlighted their records."

"These are only two examples of a Republican Congress that is out of touch with the values and the interests of the American family," added Majority Action leadership circle member Joe Andrew. "We plan to continue to aggressively shine a spotlight on the failed record of Congressional members.

One ad focuses on Congresswoman Pryce's special interest funded travel and votes to end the investigation into Jack Abramoff. The Ad "Trips" will run in the Columbus media market in Ohio for one week. The second ad focuses on Congressman Walsh's continued support of President Bush's failed "stay the course" Iraq policy. "Iraq" will run in the Syracuse media market in New York for two weeks.

Majority Action intends to shine the spotlight on Republican members of Congress using traditional communications efforts, like television advertising, and new, emerging technologies, like text messaging. In these ads, the first to use text messaging, people can text the word "IRAQ" to 35328 for more information on their mobile phones in the Walsh ad and text the word "TRIPS" to the short code 35328 on their mobile phones in the Pryce ad.

Both ads can be viewed on MajorityAction.net and on YouTube.com [1].

Majority Action is led by veteran Democratic campaign operatives and has a leadership board that consists of prominent political figures, including several former Members of Congress, two former Democratic National Committee Chairmen and two former DCCC Chairmen.

Majority Action Spotlights Leadership Handling of Page-Gate

By NGP Admin Created 2006-10-06 08:34

Majority Action Launches Radio and Internet Ads Focused on Reps. Hastert, Reynolds and Pryce Inaction in the Rep. Foley Page-Gate Scandal

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today turned a bright spotlight on three Republican Members of Congress who turned a blind eye to Rep. Foley's inappropriate relationships with boys who were House Pages.

Listen to the radio ads "Scandal" [0] and "The Buck Stops Here" [0]

"The behavior of former Congressman Mark Foley is reprehensible," said Donnie Fowler of Majority Action. "Majority Action wants the public to know that Rep. Hastert, Rep. Reynolds and Rep. Pryce failed to use their top leadership posts in the House to immediately protect children. Even worse, they took money from Foley."

The radio ads are airing in the Buffalo, Rochester and Washington, DC media markets.

Majority Action Spotlights Records on Stem Cell Research

By NGP Admin Created 2006-10-09 23:22

Launches Powerful Ad Spotlighting Cong. Chocola, Drake, Sherwood and Walsh

Washington, D.C. - Majority Action today launched ads that turn a powerful spotlight on four Republican Members of Congress who voted against federal funding for stem cell research.

"Stem cell research offers great medical hope for patients and families suffering from devastating illnesses or injuries," said Mark Longabaugh, Executive Director of Majority Action. "This ad, in very powerful terms, lays out what is at stake in the stem cell debate. Majority Action wants the public to know that these four Members of Congress do not believe that doctors and scientists should be able to carry out critical research and do not support critical federal funding of stem cell research."

"Republicans have made choices that pick ideology over life-saving medical research. They have chosen interest group politics over the ability of science to give families more options when making decisions about their health care," continued Longabaugh.

The ads are airing in the Norfolk, South Bend, Syracuse, and Wilkes Barre-Scranton media markets. The ads can be seen on MajorityAction.net and on YouTube.com.
